

NEW DELHI
FRIDAY
OCTOBER 28, 2022

Hindustan Times | BEYOND BOOKS

GD Goenka Public School, Sarita Vihar, celebrates its annual literary festival

The festival offered an apt platform to the students to show their talents

GD Goenka Public School, Sarita Vihar, celebrated its annual literary festival, Goenkan Literazzi 2022: The Celebration of Language and Literature. The event was attended by school chairman Vipul Garg, secretary Madan Lal, mentor T R Garg and the institute's founder principal Seema Sahay.

The event has been conceptualized with an aim to mould the students into cultured and talented individuals with a passion for curiosity—built through performance, ideation and discussion.

This year, the festival explored the theme of National Education Policy (NEP)2020' in different ways and on different scales through various innovative events.

The NEP lays emphasis upon the holistic development of the creative and innovative potential of each student as an integral part of education.

The literary festival offered a versatile platform to paint the vast canvas of literature with hues of oratory, drama, writing and debate under five different categories. The event was judged by 20 intellectuals in the field of education across Delhi/NCR. The event concluded with school principal Seema Sahay motivating the audience. Headmistress, Alka Sharma thanked the gathering for making the event a great success.