

htbeyondbooks

■ Pupils showcased their innate talent at the event

GD Goenka hosts literary festival

HT Correspondent

NEW DELHI: GD Goenka Public School, Sarita Vihar, hosted a cultural and literary fiesta titled the Goenkan Wonderfest.

The event was part of the vision of school chairman Vipul Garg and aimed to give children a platform to showcase their innate potential and get exposure on a larger platform. The theme of event was 'Save the Earth' and comprised eight competitions in the creative and performing arts categories. The creative arts competitions included Colouring the World, Bits of Paper, Nature's Strokes (Madhubani painting) and Earthen Hands (clay play). The performing arts events included Food Talk (show and Tell), The Rain Raga (fancy dress), Nature Rhymes and Green Ambassadors (ramp walk). The event was open to children across the city. The day witnessed an exhibition of talent in all competitions. Worthy judges, all masters in their respective fields adjudged the competitions and the deserving won accolades. Every participant was awarded a participation certificate.

THE THEME OF THE EVENT WAS 'SAVE THE EARTH' AND COMPRISED EIGHT COMPETITIONS IN THE CREATIVE AND PERFORMING ARTS CATEGORIES

School principal Seema Sahay lauded the efforts put in by the participants and their parents. The event was a success.