DATE: 21 FEBRUARY, 2026

CLASS: KINDERGARTEN

The beautiful thing about learning is that no one can take it away from you.” — B. B. King

G D Goenka School, Sarita Vihar believes education is not merely taught but lived—cultivating curious minds, shaping strong character and weaving knowledge into life lessons that empower students far beyond the classroom walls. The Goenkans of Grade Kindergarten presented their year-end presentation through an Integrated Learning Programme by the name “Coffee with Curriculum” on February 21, 2026.

The presentation was thoughtfully planned to showcase all that the students had learned during the session. Through interesting experiments, lively music, graceful dance performances, engaging skits, exciting quizzes and fun hands-on activities, the children confidently expressed their understanding of different subjects. The programme began with a mesmerizing Ganesh Vandana, where the children gracefully performed a Maharashtrian based style dance, leaving the audience spellbound. The school Principal, Ms. Seema Sahay shared some warm and thoughtful words, highlighting how the school supports each student and ensures that every child’s learning journey is special and meaningful. Gradually all the subjects i.e English, Hindi, Math and Life Science came one after another and children depicted their in- depth learning of various concepts which they have learned throughout the year.

In English, children confidently demonstrated their knowledge of CVC words, diagraphs, blends and sentence formation. In Hindi, the kindergarteners beautifully presented their skills and lessons confidently. In Mathematics, they illustrated the number names, concepts of addition and subtraction with clarity through small enactments. In Life Science, they explored fascinating topics like transport, traffic rules, seasons and solar system.

The parents enthusiastically joined in the fun, taking part in puzzles, tongue twisters, and action songs with full energy and cheer. Their wholehearted participation reflected not only their excitement but also their genuine interest in supporting and celebrating their child’s learning journey. Towards the end of the presentation, the school Headmistress, Ms. Vinita Sachdeva applauded the children for their remarkable efforts, creativity and confidence. The parents felt proud and were full of appreciation as they watched their children perform so confidently and beautifully on stage. The programme ended on a positive and joyful note, leaving everyone feeling proud and inspired.
