Event Report

“A nation’s culture resides in the hearts and in the soul of its people.”

- Mahatma Gandhi

The 70th Republic Day was celebrated in all its solemnity and grandeur at GD Goenka Public School, Sarita Vihar on Friday, 25th January 2019. To mark the importance of this day many activities were planned in the school premises.

Remembering Dr. B.R. Ambedkar – the maker of the modern India who flagged the constitution of India, the students of Grade III presented a great show reflecting the importance of the constitution. A Nukkad Natak put up by the students that brought home the realization that every citizen should fulfill his duties conscientiously to enjoy the rights he has been given. The enthusiastic students of Nursery also presented a patriotic song and foot tapping performance that filled the air with a musical fervor.

Students of class KG showcased unity in diversity through a Dress & Tell activity where they dressed up as their favorite state’s costume and spoke few a lines about the state they portrayed. A Republic Day craft was also created where little Goenkans painted the tri colors to make beautiful artifacts. The day ended on the sweet note by enjoying the celebratory ladoos which were distribute amongst all students and staff.

The students took pride in glorifying and celebrating the spirit of unity.
